LETTER FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

Dear Fellow Greater Beloit Chamber of Commerce Members,

Last year, our past Board Chair Jack Walden wrote that the Greater Beloit Chamber of Commerce (GBCC) would strive to provide its valued members with timely information, opportunities to connect with other business leaders, and overall support for our business community. Below is a small sample of what GBCC was able to accomplish in 2021.

- 1,500 email subscribers (spanning from Madison, WI, to Rockford, IL) reading our 70+ e-newsletters
- 42 new business members welcomed
- 1780+ Likes on Facebook
- 44,365 website page views
- 350+ investor businesses supported
- 95 Rising Professionals members across a wide variety of careers
- 50+ Ambassadors with a combined 750+ years of business experience
- 1,500+ attendees at GBCC business and networking events
- 25+ monthly chamber member referrals

The amazing team at GBCC accomplished these goals—and more—in 2021 while establishing positive momentum that continues to build in 2022. Thank you to the GBCC team: Aimee Thurner, Maggie Littlefield, and Madysen Wade, and to all GBCC volunteers for contributing to another successful year.

Established in 1927, GBCC will celebrate its 95th anniversary in 2022. Age, however, will not slow this organization down, and 2022 will be another exciting year for GBCC. We will continue to build upon established momentum by being the culture center of the greater Beloit business community and providing members with opportunities to participate as we continue to make our region thrive.

As a GBCC member, we invite you all to take part in any way you can throughout the year. Whether you choose to join a committee, wear a red jacket with the Ambassadors, have the rising stars within your organization join with other rising stars in the Rising Professionals, or attend some of the GBCC's many educational programs and networking events, there is an opportunity for us all.

On behalf of the Greater Beloit Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and our team, we thank you for your membership, and we look forward to a prosperous 2022.

Warmest Regards,

Seth Frisbee

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Despite the uncertainty that continued into 2021, the Chamber team jumped in wholeheartedly to make it a year to remember, working creatively to accomplish myriad things:

- We hosted multiple events, including an annual dinner to remember with former NFL player Josh Sitton, a quality golf outing, and an inspiring Influential Women in Business Luncheon in partnership with the Stateline Chamber.
- In partnership with the Greater Beloit Economic Development Corporation, our Business Education Committee hosted an Inclusivity, Equity, and Collaboration Business Education Summit in August. This talented group also launched a job shadowing video series program with our partners at CareerTek and Peer Canvas, giving companies an opportunity to showcase job opportunities to students from all over the state line area.
- We helped celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the Gateway Business Park, which continues to thrive with the addition of Spray Tek, approval of the Ho Chunk project, and the 2021 completion of the I90 project, to name just a few.
- We cheered on the addition of the ABC Supply Stadium and Beloit Sky Carp, and celebrated the Stateline Boys and Girls Club's beautiful new facility.
- We continued to provide educational opportunities for our members through our virtual Business Studio series.
- Within our office:
 - We hired a new Administrative Assistant / Community Concierge, Madysen Wade. Madysen is now our Programs Manager, running all chamber programing including the Ambassador and Rising Professional programs.
 - We celebrated Director of Events Marketing Maggie Littlefield's fifth year with us, as she continued to provide quality events and programing for our members, developing new ways for our members to Belong, Engage and Thrive!

We couldn't do any of this work without our many dedicated volunteers, including our board of directors, our ambassadors, and our Rising Professional group members. These professionals represent a diverse group of business representatives from all over the region, and we are lucky to have them!

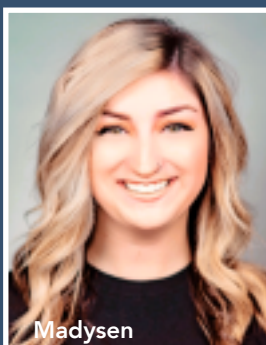

Thank you for being a part of our work as we continue to grow and develop. We couldn't—and wouldn't want to—do it without you.

Wishing everyone a healthy and prosperous 2022,
